3.4 Device Identifier

A random identifier derived from a hardware ID is stored solely to bind licenses to one device. This identifier:

- is not used for tracking
- is not shared
- cannot identify a user on its own

We may store technical identifiers (such as a hashed hardware identifier) and timestamps related to license activation and acceptance of legal agreements, solely for licensing, security, fraud prevention, and contractual enforcement purposes.

3.5 Security & Recovery

Stored:

- password reset tokens (temporary)
 - acceptance of Terms

4. Purpose of Processing

Data is processed only to:

- manage accounts
 - authenticate users
 - validate licenses
 - process purchases
 - ensure security

5. Data Sharing

No personal data is sold.

Data is shared only:

- with PayPal for payment processing
- where legally required

6. AI & Automated Processing

The Website does not use AI or automated profiling.

Downloaded software may use machine learning and computer vision locally, without processing personal data beyond authentication.

7. Retention

Data is retained only as long as necessary or legally required.

8. User Rights (GDPR)

Users have rights of access, rectification, deletion, and objection.

Requests: info@sharpaim.org

9. Security

Appropriate security measures protect stored data.

10. Changes

This Policy may be updated and published on the Website.
